

How to find the Learning Express Library Database

Go to our website, www.merrimacklibrary.org, then bring your mouse over to Virtual Library and scroll to down to and left-click once on Databases to open that webpage.

Once the webpage opens, scroll down the page until you see LEARNING EXPRESS LIBRARY and left-click once on the title to open the database.

*There's a video to learn how to use the site.

You may need login using either your username or library card number [full number below the barcode] & password.

Once that is completed it should bring you to the Learning Express Library homepage.

If you are not registered for library services, click here to register now
If you have a library card but do not yet have a password, click here to create a password

Please enter your username or barcode, and password.

You may be required to register to create an account. If you do, it will remember your scores for practice tests.  I'd recommend watching the "View our helpful user guides." to learn helpful hints on how to use the database.

“The Preparation for the Praxis I PPST Exam is the Academic Skills Assessment that measures proficiency in reading, mathematics and writing...” Preparation for the Praxis I: PPST exam. (2005). Australia: Thomson/Peterson's.

In the search box type in Praxis academic skills or Praxis core. As shown in the picture below, you'll be able to click on one of the choices that pop-up once words are typed in the search box.
